

On Tuesday, October 11, Elyse Bruce (author of the Missy Barrett books) will be at the King Family Library located at 408 High Street in Sevierville (TN) for a Meet and Greet followed by a Q&A session as part of Teen Read Week™.

Teen Read Week™ is a national adolescent literacy initiative created by the Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA) in 1998, and has continued every year since.

MEET
ELYSE
BRUCE

Have you ever wanted to know what it's like to write a story and see it in print? Have you ever wanted to know how to get your story published?

Elyse Bruce will be at the King Family Library to talk with pre-teens and teens about the life of a published author, and more. Bring your questions, and find out if you have what it takes to be an author!
